

Plastic Bag Mesh Dress

By
Group 2

Project Type
Make-it-Yourself

Category
Bags & Clothing

Waste Materials
Carrier Bags,

Hits
5,325

The outer shell of the dress is a structured shape made from a mesh fabric trapped within plastic bags and edged with a teabag binding. Thanks to: Life Photographic Photographer - Wayne Harker-Gill (<http://www.lifephotographic.co.uk>) Makeup - Clare Newman (<http://www.lifephotographic.co.uk>) Hair - Anthony Holland Model: Marta Rembielinska

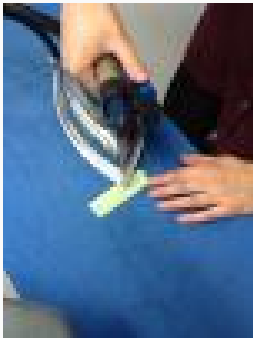

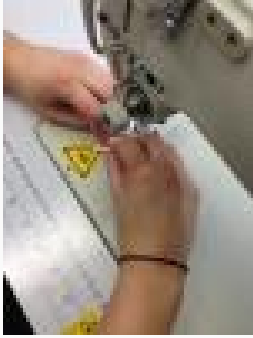

Materials & Equipment List

Clear plastic bags
Fruit bags or similar mesh fabric like Bridal Veiling
Teabags
Spraypaint
Fabric dye or paint
Thread
Fastening
Scissors
Iron
Sewing machine

Making Instructions

Set the iron to a low or medium heat, make sure to use some greaseproof paper in between the iron and pl

Image not found

<http://www.co-oproduct.org/images/remake/steps/thumbs/13631288183b2172b0dfd.jpg>

For the under dress we used an old slip and altered the shape, we took in te side seams to make it more fit

Image not found
<http://www.co-oproduct.org/images/remake/steps/thumbs/1363129561b4724c5d.jpg>

